

百勝中國的兒童節活動備受歡迎，IP聯動持續創新（英文版）

6/4/2024

SHANGHAI, June 3, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- Yum China Holdings, Inc. (the "Company" or "Yum China", NYSE: YUMC and HKEX: 9987) today announced that in celebration of Children's Day in China, over 4 million toy set meals have been sold this year as of June 2.

Building on its long-term collaboration, KFC China teamed up with Pokémon again this year, offering six new Pokémon toys for this year, designed to appeal to fans of all ages. The exciting lineup included a Gengar memory game, a popular gaming toy; a Pikachu CD player and a Mimikyu spinner that incorporates image recognition and voice recognition technology; and a Pokémon-themed hand-eye coordination trainer that encourage physical activity. Meanwhile, Pizza Hut continued its partnership with Sanrio, the IP owner of Hello Kitty, and launched an adorable series of beach-themed Sanrio toys, including a Hello Kitty-themed music player.

Yum China has a long history of collaborating with popular IPs on toy releases and creative marketing campaigns, spanning more than two decades. Leveraging its deep insights into Chinese consumer preferences and market trends, Yum China has been able to design and launch products that carry broad appeal and resonate deeply with Chinese consumers.
